R. Kelly Gauldin Found Dying Room 37, at the New Richmond.

DISAPPOINTED IN

On a Postal Card He Leaves a Last Message to His Sweetheart-Had Been on a Spree.

Mr. R. Kelley Gauldin, the well known traveling salesman, was found in a dying condition in room 37 at th New Richmond Hotel about o'clock this morning. He had left a call for the 3:45 train, and when awakened responded. When one of the hotel attaches went into the room about 7:30 he was breathing his last, and when Dr. J. D. Robertson arrived was dead. The physician pronounce death due to morphine peisoning.

The deceased was found lying o the bed, dressed all but his coat, as if he had gotten up when called, put on his clothes, and gone back to bed. He which six or eight grains were gone w as found nearby.

On a table nearby was found a postal card such as are used by drummers to send to customers announcing their coming. On one side were a few words asking that Mr. Reuben Palmer. who is a member of the livery firm Palmer, Wilkerson & Kirby, be notifled. Mr. Palmer is an old friend, and was one of the first summoned.

On the other side of the card were the following words: "Goodbye, darling! of Paducah, for the defense. you didn't cause this." This was signed 'Kelley," but there was no address. It is supposed this was to his sweet-

DIED IN CAIRO.

VELL KNOWN RESIDENT OF M CRACKEN COUNTY DIES IN ILLINOIS.

Mr. Louis Hines, Sr., aged 76, one f the best known residents of the ounty, died at Cairo yesterday from nonia, after a brief illenss. He had been there several days on a visit to his daughters, Mesdames Heffley and Atchinson, of that place.

A notable coincidence of his death is that he died on the birthday of both his oldest and youngest children. In addition to the above two daughters, he leaves three children in this county, Wm. and Louis Hines and Mrs. Rebecca Price.

The remains arrived at 9 o'clock last night on the Dick Folwer, and were aken to his former home near Massac INQUEST THIS AFTERNOON AT NANCE'S this morning and interred at the Hines' graveyard.
